KING JAMES VERSION—Edited and Revised in 1611

With Combined Concordance and 12 Indexed Colored Maps as described below.

CONCORDANCE.

Combines Concordance Subject-Index and Pronouncing Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names, diacritically marked for their pronunciation according to the latest revision of Webster's International Dictionary, with meaning. Also Obsolete and ambiguous words. Names, Titles, and Offices of Christ, by Professor Ira M. Price, Ph.D., Chicago. Life and work of Christ from Scripture Texts. Incidents in the Old Testament referred to in the New Testament. Passages quoted or paraphrased in the New Testament from the Old. Over 10,000 references are given, showing all the principal changes of the Revised Version side by side with the passages according to the King James Version.

The incorporation of all these features in the Concordance has, it is believed, made it the most useful and handy Concordance ever published.

BIBLE ATLAS.

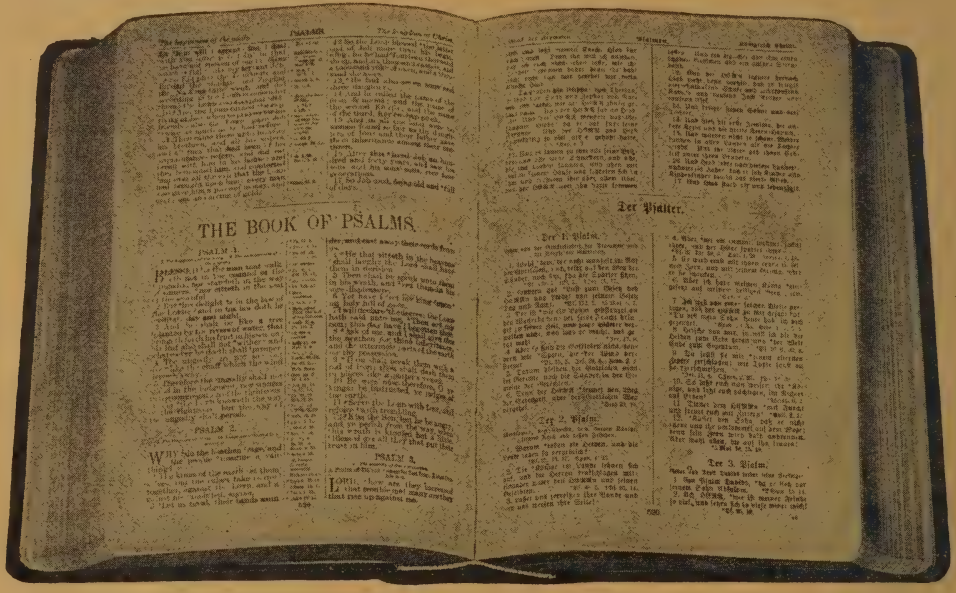
CONCORDIA BILINGUAL BIBLE.

ENGLISH-GERMAN PARALLEL EDITION.

We are pleased to offer here the first complete diglot Bible ever published in this form in two living languages. All pages have been photographically reproduced from the type used in the Concordia Bibles—the German in the original Luther text and the English in the King James Version. The two facing pages in each case contain the same Biblical material. The English type is self-pronouncing.

This Bible is bound in two styles, each with and without Bible helps. All contain a series of 12 FULL PAGE COLORED MAPS with an index to each place shown. The helps consist of a CONCISE BIBLE DICTIONARY, of 118 pages, based on the "Illustrated Bible Treasury", which has been thoroughly revised by Prof. Theo. Graebner; the COMBINED CONCORDANCE, of 243 pages, gives a reference to all passages in the text. Much other valuable information is to be found here.

Considering that each volume contains two complete Bibles, through the use of especially thin and opaque paper the thickness is less than two inches for the Bible text with an additional half inch for helps. Size of book 6″x8″.



The illustration above shows how the type is arranged on facing pages. Below will be found exact specimens of the English and German text, so placed for comparison only.

Nelson Editions of Prayer-Books and New Hymnals

The New Hymnal as authorized and approved for use by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

No new edition of the Episcopal Prayer Book can be issued until the alterations tentatively made are finally ratified by the next Convention in 1928. This means the new Prayer Book will probably be issued some time during the year 1929, but not before.

NELSON JUVENILES

In issuing our 1926 LIST OF BOOKS FOR GIRLS AND BOYS it is worth reprinting a note which recently appeared in the Publishers' Circular (London):

> In 1924 the sale of Books termed Juveniles ranks SECOND, having out-run Religious Books which have now taken THIRD place with Sociology FOURTH—Poetry FIFTH.

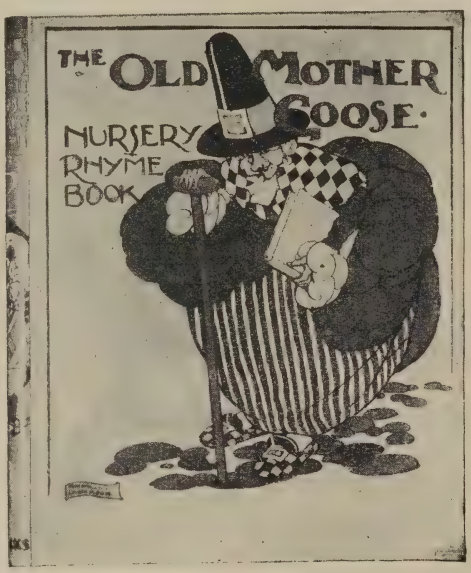
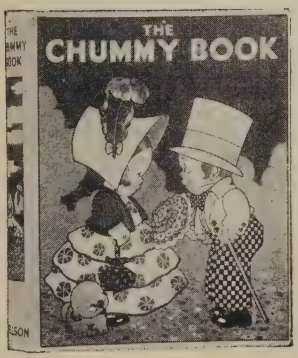
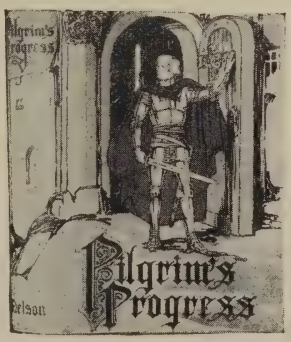
Encourage reading among the children of today and develop the book buyer of tomorrow.





Send for new illustrated catalogue of the Nelson Juvenile, Toy Books and Miscellaneous publications, such as French and Spanish Classics, Religious Books Nelson Classics.



Equal to a Library of 3,000 Volumes

It is no exaggeration but the simple, literal truth, to say that Nelson's Loose-Leaf Encyclopaedia is of the greatest educational value to the professional man, business man and student for all practical purposes—far better than a miscellaneous library that would cost many thousands of dollars.

No other Encyclopaedia in the English language can compare with Nelson's in its vast fund of up to date, reliable information. Nelson's Loose-Leaf Encyclopaedia, with the Companion Index Volume and Reader's Guide of thirty-three study courses, is a liberal and practical College Education for every member of the family.

The New Complete Index Volume

This Index immensely increases the value of Nelson's Encyclopaedia as a work of reference. So thorough and exhaustive is the Index that every item relating to any subject however remote can be found. This Index multiplies the value of all material in the Encyclopaedia, because it makes it all so easily accessible and available that the boy of twelve can turn at once to all information he desires on any subject.

This Great American Encyclopaedia—ALWAYS NEW

Every six months all subscribers to NELSON'S receive their renewal pages—250 pages or more—between 500 and 700 pages each year. These include over 2,000 changes each year and keep NELSON'S perpetually accurate and down to date. NELSON'S treats upwards of 1,000,000 topics, has 500 maps in color and black and white, and 7,000 illustrations, including text cuts, colored plates, charts, etc.

Why Pay For Old Volumes?

Permanently bound Encyclopaedias cannot be kept up to date. It is physically impossible. You struggle through a mass of uncorrelated material in various volumes and supplements, and in the end you can never be sure you have all the information and that it is up-to-date. NELSON'S LOOSE-LEAF is the only really new, reliable and up-to-date Encyclopaedia obtainable at any price.

Nelson's Free Research Bureau

FOR SCIENTIFIC REPORTS AND SPECIAL INFORMATION AND CORRESPONDENCE. Every purchaser of Nelson's is entitled to free membership in this Bureau. If at any time you are in doubt on any subject, old or new, write to this Bureau with the positive assurance that you will promptly receive the latest obtainable and most dependable information.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

THE NEW HONOR BOOKS

We have the pleasure to announce a new series of books for boys and girls to be known as THE HONOR BOOKS. These books will be uniformly priced at $1.50 each. Eight books as listed below constitute the initial titles. Four other titles are in preparation for early publication. Others will follow.

It is our belief that these books represent a real advance in the production of better books for boys and girls. Comparison will show that THE HONOR BOOKS are unequalled in excellence and number of color illustrations, size of type, quality of paper, and strength of binding. Many of these books will be illustrated by no less than sixteen full pages in color, placing them in a class apart. Some of the most famous artists, such as Byam Shaw, present the books of this series.

Persons interested in placing superior editions of children's classics in the hands of boys and girls will find their solution in THE HONOR BOOKS.

Each book is bound in Rex Vellum Cloth with gold stampings. Beautiful jackets in color add to the attractiveness. Size, large 12mo.

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS, by JOHN BUNYAN — Price, $1.50

Sixteen full pages in color by BYAM SHAW. *Universally conceded by competent critics as the most beautiful edition of this old classic, Pilgrim's Progress sold at $3.50 for years. THE ROLL CALL OF HONOR, by SIR ARTHUR QUILLER-COUCH Price, $1.50

Nine full pages in color. Published in 1922 at $5.00, "The Roll Call of Honor" *immediately won a place as a lasting contribution to juvenile literature. THE LAST SECRETS: THE FINAL MYSTERIES OF EXPLORATION

By JOHN BUCHAN Price, 75 cents

What NANSEN said of Polar Exploration is true of all exploration: its story is a "mighty manifestation of the power of the unknown over the mind of man."

With the discoveries of the last two decades, many of the great geographical riddles of the world have been solved. For the rest, problems are now of survey and scientific inquiry rather than that of exploration in the grand manner. But to the ordinary boy and girl there is an appeal in large, bold and obvious conundrums, which is lacking in the minutiae of research.

Explorations described are "Col. Younghusband's Mission to Lhasa"; "The Gorges of the Brahmaputra"; "The North Pole"; "The Mountains of the Moon"; "The South Pole"; "Mt. McKinley"; "The Holy Cities of Islam"; "The Exploration of New Guinea"; "Mt. Everest."

THE LAST SECRETS contains accounts of recent discoveries not otherwise available for boys and girls of 12 to 15 years. THE LAST SECRETS is therefore a valuable contribution to children's literature. Cloth. Taped binding. 10 maps. 303 pages. 12mo.

A BOOK OF ESCAPES AND HURRIED JOURNEYS

Price, 75 cents

DIANA CARRIES ON, by BESSIE MARCHANT.

Illustrated. Cloth. Price, $1.50

An adventure story of South America for girls. Read what a modern girl has to say about it, in a review from the Philadelphia Public Ledger of December 5, 1925:

DIANA CARRIES ON, reviewed by Effie Irving Scales, aged 15 years. Agnes Irwin School, Philadelphia.

"This charming book would be of interest to any one who would read it. It is a combination of joy, sorrow, and adventure. The characters are unique, natural, and thoroughly entertaining. One finds plenty of humor and pathos in this story, and it keeps you wondering until the very end. It has its villain, breath-taking and villainous. The hero is fine, as every hero should be, while the heroine is the "pink of perfection." To relieve the tension of goodness and badness, however, the three sisters are natural, healthy girls and their escapades fill the book. The story is well thought out and easily written, in a dashing style. Altogether it is a remarkably exciting book."

THE ENGLISH STORY IN PROSE.

An Introduction to the English Novel by PHYLLIS M. BISHOP. 192 pages. With portrait of Charlotte Brontë.

Cloth 75 cents; Leather $1.50

The Volume begins with Malory, and traces the evolution of the story in English literature down to our day. The authors included are: Lyly, Sidney, Deloney, Overbury, Bunyan, Steele, Addison, Defoe, Richardson, Fielding, Sterne, Johnson, Goldsmith, Fanny Burney, Mrs. Radcliffe, Jane Austen, Scott, T. L. Peacock, Thackeray, Charlotte Bronte, George Eliot, Charles Reade, Dickens, R. L. Stevenson, George Meredith, Thomas Hardy, and Hugh Walpole.

THE ENGLISH STORY IN VERSE.

Compiled and edited by PHYLLIS M. BISHOP. 288 pages. With portrait of S. T. Coleridge.

Cloth 75 cents; Leather $1.50

This Volume contains—Epics and Epic Fragments; Romances; Ballads and their Imitations; Allegory and Fables; Satires, Later Romances; Dramatic Lyrics; Other Narrative Poems.

The Contents range from Beowulf to William Morris, and include copyright poems by Alfred Noyes, D. G. Rossetti, R. L. Stevenson, Henry Newbolt, John Masefield, W. W. Gibson, and W. B. Yeats.

TENNYSON AND BROWNING.

Contrasted by GUY BOAS, M.A. 256 pages. With portraits of the two Poets in their early manhood. Cloth 75 cents; Leather $1.50

The Introduction shows how the Book may be used, not only to make acquaintance with each Poet separately, but also to compare one with the other.

TENNYSON AS LYRIC STYLIST: BROWNING AS DRAMATIC REALIST.

PATRIOTIC POEMS.
POEMS OF ART.
POEMS OF LOVE.
POEMS OF FAITH.

WORDSWORTH AND COLERIDGE.

Contrasted by GUY BOAS, M.A. 256 pages. With portraits. Cloth 75 cents; Leather $1.50

This Volume follows the same plan as Tennyson and Browning, containing selected poems of Wordsworth and Coleridge respectively.

The Book contains the best of Wordsworth and Coleridge.

TREASURE ISLAND.

With My First Book. By R. L. STEVENSON. 256 pages. With frontispiece portrait study of John Silver. Cloth 75 cents

This Volume forms a most attractive pocket edition of the greatest of all adventure stories.

It is followed by a self-revealing paper by the Author, describing the genesis of his book, and the way in which it was written and published.

SHAKESPEARE'S MACBETH.

Edited by EVELYN SMITH, B.A., 158 pages. Illustrated. With frontispiece of King Macbeth.

Cloth 75 cents

"The reader acts the play himself in the theatre of his own mind." The treatment of the play is similar to that of the other books in the series. The introduction deals with the characters of the play and their environments, with pen drawings of the principal characters.

The text (with foot notes) is followed by helps to further study, dealing with the Life of Shakespeare (with special reference to the time of the composition of Macbeth and the other great tragedies), the chief recorded events of the life of Shakespeare (apart from the period described above), The Elizabethan Theatre, Macbeth in the Theatre, Editions of Shakespeare's Plays, Date of the Composition of Macbeth, The Sources of the Play.

A concluding section, on Thinking It Over, gives splendid suggestions for the study of the play, rather than a detailed analysis. The text totals 87 pages, explanatory material 65 pages.

SHAKESPEARE'S RICHARD THE SECOND.

Edited by SIR HENRY NEWBOLT. 128 pages. Illustrated. With frontispiece portrait of Richard II. Cloth 75 cents.

This Edition is intended for those who consider that the dramatic side of the poet's genius has recently been over-emphasized; who remember that Shakespeare was a poet as well as a dramatist, and that his most intimate and lasting appeal is to the mind and the emotions, rather than to the eye and ear.

SHAKESPEARE'S A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM.

Edited by EVELYN SMITH, B.A. 128 pages. Illustrated. With frontispiece of Puck by E. HEBER THOMPSON. Cloth 75 cents

The Text (with Footnotes) is followed by HELPS TO FURTHER STUDY, dealing with the Poet, the Elizabethan Theatre, Editions of the Play, Sources and Dates, as well as those Classic Myths referred to by the dramatist.

THE TOWN IN LITERATURE.

Compiled and edited by L. S. WOOD and H. L. BURROWS. 256 pages. With frontispiece portrait of Dick Whittington.

Cloth 75 cents; Leather $1.50

The Editors have ranged over the whole of English Literature to discover how our poets and prose-writers have regarded "urbanity" in its literal sense. The result is a book of entrancing interest, not a mere catalogue of towns, but a moving picture of town life from the time of Chaucer to the present day.

Of course, London looms largest, but the Editors have done full justice to towns of all types and sizes throughout the length and breadth of Britain.

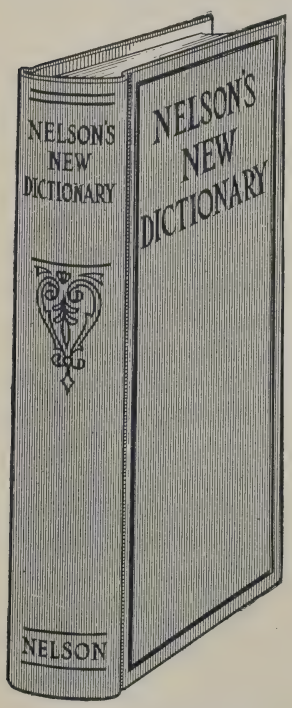
Nelson New Dictionary

"This handy little book of words recommends itself because it is convenient to carry about and because it has enough words to equip every youth with a fortune in word coins to go out and exchange ideas with the greatest minds that have spoken in the English language or have had their words translated into it."—JOHN H. FINLEY.



A DICTIONARY FOR CURRENT TIMES—An entirely new dictionary which meets the most desirable requirements of convenient size for quick reference and moderate price, without sacrificing important or necessary words.

AN ORIGINAL FEATURE—Many words which have gained currency during the War have been introduced—as for example, terms connected with aviation and other novel weapons and devices. Nor have such borrowings as Boche, Bolsheviki, camouflage, doughboy, jitney and poilu been omitted.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES

CLEAR BOLD FACE TYPE—for all defined words, and indentation of definitions, so that the word looked for stands out clearly on the page.

CLEAR CONCISE DEFINITIONS—better and more to the point than are given in any other dictionary of anywhere near the size.

DERIVATIONS AND ROOT MEANINGS OF WORDS—found in no other small dictionary. This root origin of words is of the greatest importance and enters vitally into the full definition of words.

NEW WORDS AND NEW MEANINGS—of old words, which have come into use during the War and after.

CAPITALIZATION—of only those words which are properly capitalized—a great help in this vexed problem.

PRONUNCIATION OF ALL WORDS—indicated by phonetic spelling and by division into syllables, with accents.

GROUPING OF WORDS—derived from the same root in a single paragraph, showing clearly the inter-relation of words and economizing space, so that many more words and fuller definitions can be included than in any except the larger dictionaries.

DEFINITION OF FOREIGN WORDS AND PHRASES—Latin, Greek, and Modern languages. Pocket size—Full information—Low price—Price, 75 cents

NELSON NEW DICTIONARY is also made in New Century Library style, bound in Maroon Leather, flexible covers, gold top, gold title on back. Price, $2.00.

THE APPEAL OF THE BIBLE TODAY Cloth. 12mo. Price, $1.50

By THISELTON MARK, D.LITT., B.SC., Lecturer in the University of Manchester.

The whole hope of human progress is suspended on the ever-growing influence of the Bible. We think of the Bible as a book that was inspired. But the wonder of the Bible is that it is inspired. For the many who know that new light has been thrown upon the Bible by recent scholarship, but do not know as yet how reverent is that scholarship or how helpful is the new light in the reading and teaching of Scripture, this book is written.

The purpose of the book is two-fold. First, to show how largely the Bible speaks for itself, and on all the larger issues is its own interpreter; secondly, to show how well the Bible bears the fullest and clearest light that can be thrown upon it. New interpretations do not do away with the old values.

It is just such a measured, succinct statement, luminous and picturesque withal, as we have long needed. It is precisely the kind of a book to place in the hands of the average educated man. It will be a very real help in the many perplexities which people are feeling just now.

Bibles for School and Library

Bound in strong Buckram—the most durable cloth for book binding—with reinforced cloth hinges and double strength cloth around the back, making a volume in which the sheets cannot separate from the cover.

This binding is the standard adopted by the New York Public Library for their Bibles.

AN ADDED FEATURE—The first four pages—which get the most wear, are covered with thin transparent silk to prevent tearing from being constantly handled. The round corners and red edges, with title stamped on side and back in gold, make a most attractive book.

Phonic Drill Cards, 6x8 inches, 21 in set.

The Phonic Drill Cards contain over 3,000 different phonetic words arranged according to the initial consonant or consonant combinations. Every consonant except x and z is used as an initial consonant, while common combinations of two or three consonants are also given as the initial basis of word lists. The words are printed in columns for convenience in use, each word being numbered. The words of each list begin with the basal consonant or consonant combination shown at the top of the list. These lists contain the words given in the series of the New Aldine Phonic Chart. At the end of some lists are added alphabetically arranged phonic words that do not occur in the Phonic Chart. These cards are designed to test the pupils' knowledge of phonics, to give practice in applying that knowledge, and to enlarge the pupils' vocabulary. They should be used immediately following the new Aldine Phonic Cards.

Ten Sets of the cards will be sufficient for one class room since individual work is not possible with a large group of pupils.

THE MONIST

A QUARTERLY MAGAZINE

Devoted to the Philosophy of Science
Founded by Edward C. Hegeler.

The Philosophy of Science is an application of the scientific method to philosophy. It is a systematization of positive facts; it takes experience as its foundation, and uses the formal relations of experience (mathematics, logic, etc.) as its method. All truths form one consistent system and any dualism of irreconcilable statements indicates a problem arising from either faulty reasoning or an insufficient knowledge of facts. Science always implies Monism, i. e., a unitary world-conception.

"The Monist" also discusses the Fundamental Problems of Philosophy in their Relations to all the Practical Religious, Ethical and Sociological Questions of the day.

MORAL EDUCATION. Cloth, 352 pp. Postage paid. $2.00 net

EIGHTH EDITION.

A DISCUSSION of the whole problem of moral education: its aim in relation to our society and all the means through which that aim can be attained. The parent, teacher and general reader will find the book easy reading, and study clubs, classes and reading circles will appreciate its adaptability to their needs. An invaluable bibliography with annotations included.

This volume should be carefully read by every parent and teacher in the land. It is a work at once practical and yet nobly idealistic.—The Arena, Trenton, N. J.

The work is of great value and significance and should be carefully studied by all who have the care of young people.—Nashville American.

It is being adopted widely by schools and colleges as a textbook and for collateral reading. In a letter to the publisher, the late President Cleveland said: "A slight examination of the book has awakened my interest and a desire to read it more thoroughly. I believe that in its careful perusal I shall find both profit and entertainment."—Brooklyn Citizen.

Dr. Griggs' "Moral Education" is a well thought-out book with no loose ends. Each chapter is a whole, and even the footnotes, digesting important books, or summing up movements and theories, are crammed with vital matter. The bibliography covers every important field in pedagogy and ethics. There is no effort at fine writing. The writer is concerned only to fit his word to the thought as a nest to hold the egg. It is easily the best book of its kind yet written in America.—The Literary Digest, New York.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF ART. Cloth, 347 pp. Postage paid. $2.00 net

THIRD EDITION.

THE heart of this work is an attempt to show the function of each of the great ideal fine arts in expressing and interpreting the human spirit. Exquisitely finished, but clear and simple in style, with a wide range of illustration drawn from all the arts. The Philosophy of Art translates to permanent literature the wealth of original thought, wide command of material and compelling charm of expression that have made the author's lectures a unique force in public education.

A comprehensive bibliography and a carefully prepared index increase the book's usefulness to those who wish to pursue a fuller study of the arts in their deeper implications.

In this exhaustive book Mr. Griggs considers the four great ideal types of art, sculpture, painting, music and poetry, their respective functions, their relation to one another and their noblest meaning.

A valuable book to art students and to all lovers of art.—The Brooklyn Citizen.

Mr. Griggs brings his illuminating touch to the definition of the function of art, and then he takes up in detail the meaning of sculpture, painting, music, and poetry. Throughout the book the reader feels the animation and personal appeal of the successful lecturer.—The Christian Register, Boston.

His style is simple, direct, concise and chaste. . . . Such a work has been a desideratum. It should be welcomed by lovers of art and it should create a love for art in those who lack it.—Boston Transcript.

BLOSSOMED HOURS. Cloth, gilt top, 251 pp. with index. Postage paid. $2.00 net

A BOOK of the mind and heart. Reflections upon life, art and society; stimulating, enlightening, pleasing.

"Blossomed Hours" is a book of riches. It will help to fortify our faith in the ideal, help to quicken the life of the spirit.—Edwin Markham,

A capital antidote to the mood of doubt, fear and uncertainty which obsesses the minds of so many today.—Portland Express.

It is the mellowed wisdom of maturity that is here expressed—Christian Register, Boston.

There is so much good in this book; the temptation to quote it all is hard to withstand.
—Harrisburg Patriot.

"Blossomed Hours" is a good book to sit down with when you are tired.
—Knickerbocker Press, Albany.

A BOOK OF MEDITATIONS. Cloth, gilt top, 231 pp. Postage paid. $2.00 net

SIXTH EDITION.

A VOLUME of personal reflections, sketches and poems dealing with life and art; an autobiography, not of events and accidents, but of thoughts and impressions. Frontispiece portrait by Albert Sterner.

When a book has passed into a fourth edition, as the one with the above named title has, it is reasonable to suppose that it possesses positive merits that fully entitle it to an extended lease of life, and it may be truly said that the paragraphs and poems herein preserved are worthy of the author.—Gazette, Boston.

(NOTE: The Sixth Edition is now on sale).

FOR WHAT DO WE LIVE? Board, 81 pp. Postage paid. $1.00 net

SECOND EDITION.

"THE little boat of our life labors in the trough of the sea, and we cannot see out at all. We are lifted to a wave-crest, and look out, momentarily, over the troubled waters; happy if we can see in the distance, the islands, with their fronded palms and mountains, whose summits lift to the blue dome of the sky. Again the trough of the sea engulfs us, and we cannot see. All I can offer is the vision from a single wave-crest; what the next may show, no one can foresee."

Dr. Griggs gives here the fullest and frankest statement he has yet made of his own philosophy of life.—Colorado Gazette, Colorado Springs.

The book is not only inspiring but stimulating.—Louisville Times.

"For What Do We Live?" is a book to take up and read when in a contemplative mood; when one strives at self-analysis.—Boston Globe.

Unusually interesting because of its intimate nature.—The Christian Work, N.Y.

THE USE OF THE MARGIN. Cloth, 64 pp. Postage paid. 75c. net

(In The Art of Life Series) SEVENTH EDITION.

THE author's charm as a public speaker is here transferred to the printed page. His theme is the problem of utilizing the time one has to spend as one pleases for the aim of attaining the highest culture of mind and spirit. The book contains also an introduction to the series.

A fine example of much in little. It will repay careful reading, perhaps more than once. —Chicago Record-Herald.

Edward Howard Griggs's new book does not treat of speculation in Wall Street, but with the best means of utilizing the margin of time which remains ours, after spending that part of our income which we measure in hours and minutes, in our vocations. The prompting thought given on every page of this small volume might prove the opening stroke to a mine of buried treasures which each silent thinker possesses in himself, often without his own knowledge until he is awakened by a subtle suggestion of the possibilities of life for him.

—The Public, Chicago.

(In The Art of Life Series) Cloth, 74 pp.

AN eloquent essay on the elevating power of our daily work and of the complementary values of vocation and avocation. When the cry everywhere is vocational education, it is worth while to stop and ask, what of the education that is possible through the vocation itself? The book should be of special value to young people and to men and women longing to make each day yield its full return in culture and wisdom.

This little book is full of wise counsel, eloquently expressed, and it may be warmly commended as a valuable companion.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The optimism of this book makes it very well worth reading. The author has sought to express in book form the ideas oftenest uppermost in the minds of friends, but which they rarely reveal.—Boston Transcript.

FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND MARRIAGE. Cloth, 74 pp. Postage paid. 75c. net

(In The Art of Life Series)

SEVEN laws of Friendship are suggested by the author: Moral Reality, Likeness of Personality, Complementary Relationship, Community of Experience, Growth, Loyalty and Independence of Personality. And these laws are applied to love and marriage as well. The cankers and the perils of married life are considered, and divorce and public opinion, jealousy, sentimentalism, sex-appeal and eugenics are discussed. The intimate problems of personal life are dealt with firmly, and a solution grounded in philosophy is offered for them all.

One of the few books that can be put on the little shelf of literature to be lived with —Elenore Kellogg in Chicago Evening Post.

Brilliant, lucid, helpful to a better understanding of the most vital questions of the experience of life, is this little book. A fine achievement, even for Mr. Griggs, whose writings are filled with a fine artistic sense and a thorough knowledge of those problems of existence to which he has lent his penetrating genius.—Pittsburgh Post.

HUMAN EQUIPMENT: ITS USE AND ABUSE.

Postage paid. 75c. net
Cloth, 73 pp.

(In The Art of Life Series)

THIS deals compactly with the problem, so acutely important in our money-mad society, of the right use of things—the relation of man, individually and collectively, to the tools and equipment of civilization. The style is forceful and convincing, and the book is full of wise suggestion for right living.

It is a book for the thinking classes.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A small volume of large inspirational value.—The Rocky Mountain News.

The writer speaks with authority on a live question.—Homiletic Review.

THE NEW HUMANISM.

Cloth, gilt top, 239 pp. Postage paid. $2.00 net

EIGHTH EDITION.

TEN closely integrated essays interpreting the modern spirit and developing the ideals of the new ethical and social humanism which occupies in our time the place held by the æsthetic and intellectual humanism in the earlier Renaissance.

There is a magical rhythm in his style, but back of all this is the fact that he touches the life of the listener or the reader in the way that others do not This is indescribable.
—Journal of Education, Boston.

The strong and undeviating optimism of the book as a whole, tempered as it is by the full recognition of existing social blunders, makes it at once stimulating and wholesome.
—The Dial, Chicago.

THE SOUL OF DEMOCRACY.

Cloth, 158 pp. Postage paid. $1.25 net

WHAT has the War done to socialism, feminism, religion, education and literature?

The War has not stimulated another book that is more eminently worth while.—Continent, Chicago.

This book is one of profound original social philosophy, and yet it is simple in style and popular in its appeal.—Buffalo Express.

The book as a whole considers the philosophy of the world war with relation to human liberty. It makes plain the distinction between the gospel and the superstition of non-resistance. It is a hard chapter for plaintive pacifists.—Evening Sun, New York.

Oxford Reference Bibles

An Oxford Reference Bible has references down the centre of each page, referring the reader to other passages where similar subjects are treated. Listed on pages 43–47.

Oxford Concordance Bibles

An Oxford Concordance Bible in addition to references, contains a word book at the back of the book, by which thousands of passages may be found at once if but one important word in a verse is known. There is also an index to the proper names mentioned in the Bible. Listed on pages 48–50.

Oxford Teacher's Bibles

An Oxford Teacher's Bible besides having references, contains at the back the Oxford Cyclopædic Concordance, being the helps arranged under one alphabetical index, including a Complete Harmony of the Life of Jesus Christ, Chronology of the Old Testament, Weights and Measures, besides the word-book feature as in the Concordance Bibles. Listed on pages 51–57.

Maps

All Oxford Bibles contain twelve colored maps at the back unless otherwise noted.

Oxford India Paper

An "x" after a number indicates that the book is printed on Oxford India Paper, the lightest, strongest, and thinnest paper used for printing. See inside front cover.

OXFORD BIBLE BINDINGS

French Morocco

French Morocco is made of high grade sheepskin, the term "French" being rather that of a process, while the term "Morocco" applies to the grain. This has fair wearing qualities and usually the lower priced styles are bound in this leather.

Persian Morocco

Persian Morocco is superior to French Morocco in durability and is usually the skin of Persian goats or sheep.

Real Morocco

Real Morocco is genuine goatskin, and in the binding industry is considered the most satisfactory and strongest leather for binding purposes. Goatskins used for Oxford Bible bindings are specially prepared and only the most flexible skins are used.

Levant Morocco

Levant Morocco, sometimes known as Levant, is also a genuine goatskin, but of the finest quality and selection. The skins are specially tanned and prepared by processes for which France enjoys a high reputation.

Sealskin

Sealskin, because of its suppleness and durability, lends itself admirably to the binding of Bibles. It is used in making the finest editions.

Advisability of Selecting a Good Binding

In selecting a Bible it is advisable to choose one with a good binding. A Bible that is used for years often acquires a value far beyond its original price and rebinding frequently costs more than was paid for the book originally.

ST. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER 1.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph flieth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

St. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children. 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

God is to be praised for PSALMS. his goodness and power.

shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM 34.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh unto them

The servant's success. GENESIS 24. Rebekah is called.

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the

CHAPTER 6.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jŏn'-ă-thăn, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes: and the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes said, Behold, the Hē'-brēws come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jŏn'-ă-thăn and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jŏn'-ă-thăn said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Ĭs'-rā-ĕl.

13 And Jŏn'-ă-thăn climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jŏn'-ă-thăn; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jŏn'-ă-thăn and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Sâûl in Gĭb'-ē-ăh of Bĕn'-jă-mĭn looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Sâûl unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jŏn'-ă-thăn and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Sâûl said unto Ă-hī'ăh, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Ĭs'-rā-ĕl.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while Sâûl talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes went on and increased: and Sâûl said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Sâûl and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover the Hē'-brēws that were with the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Ĭs'-rā-ĕl-ītes that were with Sâûl and Jŏn'-ă-thăn.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill, 15 the candle. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

St. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

44 But I say unto you, [a] Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and [d] pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 [h] For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 [k] Be ye therefore perfect, even [l] as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

TAKE heed that ye do not your [2] alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward [3] of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, [4] do not [p] sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They [q] have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself [r] shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy [a] closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard [t] for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [h] Our Father which art in heaven, [k] Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come, [l] Thy will be done in earth, [m] as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [n] daily bread.

12 And forgive us our [o] debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 [q] And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us [b] from evil: [c] For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 [c] For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 [f] But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover [g] when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, [i] of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, [m] anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ [u] Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where [g] moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves [q] break through and steal:

20 [r] But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 [s] The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be [u] single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore [y] the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [z] No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [b] Ye cannot serve God and [c] mammon.

25 [d] Therefore I say unto you, [e] Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 [f] Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add [i] one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even [p] Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and [a]his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ [b]And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 [d]And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [f]my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [h]The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [i]What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, [m]Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake [o]of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [r]his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [x]he knew what was in man.

1 Christ teacheth the necessity of regeneration. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism and witness of John.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 [g]The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [c]no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [d]God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [t]Except a man be born [4]again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [e]Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [2]again.

8 [e]The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [g]How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 [k]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and [l]ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [n]no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ [p]And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [q]must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but [s]have eternal life.

16 ¶ [t]For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 [u]For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ [y]He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, [z]that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For [b]every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be [3]reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, [a] were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24.

x Abraham sendeth his servant to seek a wife for Isaac. 50 He obtaineth Rebekah. 62 Isaac meeteth her.

AND Abraham was old, and [2] well stricken in age: and the LORD [b] had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said [c] unto his eldest servant of his house, that [d] ruled over all that he had, [e] Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee [f] swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that [g] thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 [h] But thou shalt go [i] unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which [k] took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [l] Unto thy seed will I give this land; [m] he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then [3] thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten [n] camels of the camels of his master, and departed; [5] for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto [o] the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time [6] "that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, [p] O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, [q] send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, [r] I stand here by the well of water; and [s] the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and [t] thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of [u] Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was [h] very [3] fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether [v] the LORD had made his journey [x] prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [4] earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, [y] I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man [z] bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of [5] his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD [b] led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was [c] Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the ing [2]in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and [b]warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities [3]about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against [c]the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites [e]gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name [4]spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the [f]corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and [5]fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and [6]digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in [8]Carmel: for he loved [9]husbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was [2]an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and [3]slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name [4]spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But [o]when he was strong, his heart was [p]lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and [q]went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And [r]Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It [t]appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the [a]priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, [d]the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself [g]hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 [h]And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a [47]several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did [k]Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 [l]So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

JOTHAM [m]was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And [n]the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of [5]Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [6]So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

PSALM 50.

A Psalm [4] of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth [s] from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, [u] the perfection of beauty, [y] God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: [z] a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 [a] He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather [b] my saints together unto me; [c] those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And [e] the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for [f] God is judge himself. Selah.

7 [h] Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: [k] I am God, even thy God.

8 [m] I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 [p] I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and [d] the wild beasts of the field are [2] mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: [e] for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 [g] Offer unto God thanksgiving; and [i] pay thy vows unto the most High:

15 And [l] call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and [9] hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 [3] Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and [p] speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will [q] reprove thee, and [r] set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that [t] forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be [x] none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him [5] that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

13 [f] And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

PSALM 64.

David prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 [f] Who whet their tongue like a sword, and [l] bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil [8] matter: they commune [9] of laying snares privily; [o] they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; [2] they accomplish [3] a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly [2] shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make [a] their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

[u] Cant. 1. 1.

brought presents, and served Sŏl′-ŏ-mon all the days of his life.

22 ¶ And Sŏl′-ŏ-mon's [3]provision for one day was thirty [4]measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tĭph′-săh even to Ăz′-ză, over [b]all the kings on this side the river: and [c]he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Jû′-dăh and Ĭs′-rā-ĕl [d]dwelt [9]safely, [e]every man under his vine and under his fig tree, [f]from Dăn even to Bĕer-shē′-bă, all the days of Sŏl′-ŏ-mon.

26 ¶ And [g]Sŏl′-ŏ-mon had forty thousand stalls of [h]horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And [i]those officers provided victual for king Sŏl′-ŏ-mon, and for all that came unto king Sŏl′-ŏ-mon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and [3]dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And [m]God gave Sŏl′-ŏ-mon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Sŏl′-ŏ-mon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children [n]of the east country, and all [o]the wisdom of Ē′-gўpt.

31 For he was [p]wiser than all men; [q]than Ē′-thăn the Ĕz′-ră-hīte, [r]and Hē′-măn, and Chăl′-cŏl, and Där′-dă, the sons of Mā′-hŏl: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And [t]he spake three thousand proverbs: and his [u]songs were a thousand and five.

THE OXFORD PICTORIAL BIBLE

Some illustrated Bibles contain copies from the Old Masters, and grand as these pictures are in color and artistic skill, no one would venture to say they are correct either as to place or costume. Other editions contain modern pictures drawn by very capable artists unfamiliar with the East. Some Bibles are full of pictures of supposed occurrences, but to our mind, no legend or tradition should be pictorially represented in a Bible. In these Bibles no attempt has been made to illustrate by picture the Divine Christ, but to depict existing customs, which throw light on Bible statements. THE PICTURES, WHATEVER MERIT OR DEMERIT THEY MAY HAVE, ARE AT LEAST TRUE.

OXFORD REFERENCE BIBLES

(WITHOUT TEACHERS' HELPS)

The specimen below illustrates the features of the references to be found in all Oxford Reference, Concordance, and Teachers' Bibles. In verse 37 will be found a letter [i] next to the word "Thou." In the reference column in the centre under [i] there are four references where a similar thought may be found. In the nineteenth verse, next to the word "penny," is a figure [2]. This guides to the reference under the same figure, which gives the modern equivalent to the Galilean penny. In the 20th verse, next to "superscription," is the figure [3], which guides to an alternative reading in the reference column.

Much light is thrown on many difficult passages by using the references connected with them; in fact, there is no more fruitful method of "searching the Scriptures" than by following out various thoughts by this system.

wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a [2]penny.
20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and [3] superscription?
21 They say unto him, Cæ'-sär's. Then saith he unto them, [k] Render therefore unto Cæ'-sär the things

[i] Deut. 6. 5. & 10. 12. & 30. 6. Luke 10. 27.

[3] or, inscription
[k] ch. 17. 25. Rom. 13. 7.
[l] Lev. 19. 18.

37 Jē'-sŭs said unto him, [i] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
38 This is the first and great commandment.
39 And the second is like unto it, [l] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

The Better Grade Bindings Most Economical

In selecting a Bible it is advisable to choose one with a better grade binding. While the lower priced ones give good service, the better ones will last much longer. A Bible that is used for years often acquires a value far beyond its original price, and if it needs rebinding, this will cost more, perhaps, than the book did originally. Rebinding is comparatively high in cost because of the charge for binder's time on one special copy. Therefore, it is well to suggest to your customer the selection of as good a binding as he can possibly afford.

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES

With New and Up-to-Date Helps
Arranged Under One Alphabet

The Only Teachers' Bible made with 20th Century Helps

Being a Practical Bible Dictionary, Including Index, Concordance, Glossary, Weights, Measures, Coins, Botany, Etc., Etc.

ARRANGED UNDER ONE ALPHABET — WITH NEW ILLUSTRATIONS

THE HELPS in this new Series of Teachers' Bibles have been thoroughly revised by English and American scholars, so as to embody the results of the most recent researches. For the greater convenience of teacher and student the information given in the forty-seven alphabetical lists of the Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is required may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place, without the necessity of reference to an index, or of search in a table of contents.

But though the arrangement is that of a Dictionary, the CYCLOPEDIC HELPS are much more than a word-book, for many of the cyclopedic articles of the Helps are included, each in its alphabetical place, and wherever it is necessary cross references to these are given under the more special entries. For instance, each weight, measure, and coin is entered in its own place in the general alphabetical order, and under each entry a reference is given to the general articles, such as Weights, Measures, or Coins, in which further information will be found. Of the illustrations, some have been taken from the "Bible Illustrations" which have appeared in recent issues of the Oxford Helps, and nothing has been included that is not authentic beyond all possibility of doubt. The pictures of scenes in Bible Lands are from photographs recently taken by M. Bonfils, and are reproduced with his permission. A new series of maps, fifteen in all, is included in the volume.

These new Helps doubly strengthen the position which the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLE has always held as

"The Bible par excellence of the World"

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES

ILLUSTRATING THE TREATMENT OF SUBJECTS

Animals

Leviathan, lĕ-vī′-a-thăn (Ps. 74. 14; Job 41. 1). Heb. Livyâthân: Gk. δράκων: Zool. S. Crocodilus vulgaris: R. V. marg. 'crocodile.' The word occurs five times, and in every case but one (Ps. 104. 26) denotes the crocodile; there it denotes the whale. In Job 3. 8, 'their mourning' in A. V., but 'leviathan' in R. V. & A. V. marg., probably refers to the 'dragon.'

Birds

Eagle. (1) (Deu. 32. 11). Heb. Nésher: Gk. ἀετός. (Specimens, Circætus Gallicus; Gyps fulvus. T. Found at Yebua.) The word is used by the Arabs for the true eagles, of which there are eight species in the Holy Land, and for the vulture, of which there are four species.
(2) Gier (Lev. 11. 18). Heb. Rachâm: Gk. πορφυρίων: R. V. vulture. (Specimen Neophron percnopterus.) The 'Egyptian vulture' or 'Pharaoh's hen,' common in Asia and all parts of Africa.

Rev. 3. 14, these things saith the A.
See Rev. 22. 20.

Jewish Sects

Sadducees, săd′-dū-cēes. A religious party of the Jews, in opposition to the Pharisees. The name is derived either from Zadok (Gk. often Saddouk), a Rabbi who lived about 300 B. C., or from Sadoc, 'just,' 'righteous,' as a retort against the arrogant title of 'pious' adopted by the Pharisees. They were very conservative in theology, and refused to admit any doctrine which could not be traced to Moses. (Hence their address to our Lord — 'Master, Moses said . . .') Thus they retained the vague ideas of a future life held by the earlier Hebrews, denying the doctrine of resurrection; and in consequence their creed was rationalistic in tone; they held that there was 'neither angel nor spirit.' In our Lord's time the high-priestly aristocracy was largely Sadducean (Acts 4. 17).
their controversies with Christ, Mat. 16. 1; 22. 23; Mk. 12. 18; Lu. 20. 27. with the apostles, Acts 4. 1; with Paul, Acts 23. 6. their doctrines. Mat. 22. 23; Mk. 12. 18; Acts 23. 8.

Insects

Fly (n.). (1) (Ex. 8. 21; Ps. 78. 45.) Heb. Arôb, or Oréb: Gk. κυνομυια: Zoöl. S. Musca, or Culex. The word means 'swarms' or 'divers sorts.' It is probably here generic, including in the 'plague of swarms' flies, sand-flies, gnats, mosquitoes, &c.
(2) (Eccl. 10. 1). Heb. Zebûb: Gk. μυῖα, only twice mentioned; once here, referring to the common fly, whose swarms would corrupt any unguent or savoury compote in a few minutes. (In Isa. 7. 18) (Zoöl. S. Hippobosca, or Œstrus), a gadfly tormenting the horses on the banks of the Nile, where 'probably the poisonous Tsetse, described by Livingstone, is meant.'

Seas and Lakes

Galilee, Sea of, called also Sea of Tiberias, Lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Chinnereth. About 13 miles long and 7 broad; 700 feet below the level of the Mediterranean. In the time of Christ the shore was a continuous garden, with several cities and villages, and was a favorite summer resort.

Weights and Money

Shekel, shĕ′-kĕl. (1) a weight = 224½ grs. See WEIGHTS.
(2) a silver coin = stater = 4 denarii = 65 cts. See MONEY.
See Gen. 23. 15; Ex. 30. 13; Jos. 7. 21; 2 Sam. 14. 26; 1 Kn. 10. 16; Neh. 5. 15; Jer. 32. 9; Ezek. 4. 10.

Minerals

Clay. (1) (Isa. 29. 16; 45. 9; 64. 8; Jer. 18. 4). Heb. Hômer: Gk. πηλός. A tenacious earth, like that so called by us, used for making bricks and earthenware. It was less cohesive than ours, and accordingly for the former purpose was bound together by an admixture of straw before being baked, and for building purposes was mixed with sand.
(2) (Isa. 41. 25). Heb. Tît: Gk. πηλός. Tît (lit. dirt) was, and still is, the common building material of the mud-houses of the peasantry of Palestine.

Jewish Calendar

Passover. The Passover was a great Historical Festival. Year after year it recalled, as in 'a living drama,' the great facts of the national deliverance from Egyptian bondage. The directions for its yearly celebration are given in Ex. 23. 15; Lev. 23. 5–8; Num. 28. 16–25. It lasted from the 14th to the 21st of Nisan or Abib. See FEASTS.

Musical Instruments

Dulcimer (Dan. 3. 5, 10, 15). Chald. Sumphônyah: Gk. συμφωνία: R. V. marg. 'bagpipe,' probably correct. The real dulcimer is the Psanterin (translated 'psaltery' in A. V.), an instrument formed of strings tightly stretched, by fixed pins and turning screws, over a rectangular sounding-board or box; and was played by hammers struck with the hand against the strings. It is the germ of the piano.

Obsolete Words

Prophet. The literal meaning of the Greek word (προφήτης, from πρόφημι, 'to speak forth') is a forth-teller, i. e., one who speaks forth the message which has been communicated to him through Divine inspiration, whether of practical duties or future events. The emphasis of the prophet's work lay on the former.
The Heb. words are: (1) nâbî', from a verb meaning 'to boil forth' as a fountain, hence one who speaks out freely from a full heart impelled by an inspiration from God. (2) rô'eh, from a verb meaning to see, hence a seer (1 Sam. 9. 10), one who saw Divine visions, Divine truths, and spoke what he had seen from God.

Precious Stones

Carbuncle (Ex. 28. 17; R. V. marg. emerald). Heb. Bâreketh: Gk. σμάραγδος. A mistranslation in Ex, 28. for 'emerald,' the only green stone 'flashing light,' which is the meaning of the Hebrew. It is likened to a rainbow in Rev 4. 3.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 1] ST. JOHN. [1 14

WRITER. The fourth Gospel was written by the Apostle John (John 21. 24). This has been questioned on critical grounds, but on the same grounds and with equal scholarship, the early date and Johanean authorship have been maintained.

Date. The date of John's Gospel falls between A.D. 85 and 90. Probably the latter.

Theme. This is indicated both in the Prologue (1. 1-14), and in the last verse of the Gospel proper (20. 31), and is: The incarnation of the eternal Word, and Son of God, Himself God, in Jesus the Christ, (1) to reveal God in the terms of a human life; (2) that as many as believe on Him as "the Christ, the Son of God" (20. 31) may have eternal life. The prominent words are, "believed" and "life."

The book is in seven natural divisions: I. Prologue: The eternal Word incarnate in Jesus the Christ, 1. 1-14. II. The witness of John the Baptist 1. 15-34. III. The public ministry of Christ, 1. 35–12. 50. IV. The private ministry of Christ to His own, 13. 1–17. 26. V. The sacrifice of Christ, 18. 1–19. 42. VI. The manifestation of Christ in resurrection, 20. 1-31. VII. Epilogue: Christ the Master of life and service, 21. 1-25.

The events recorded in this book cover a period of 7 years.

CHAPTER 1.

The deity of Jesus Christ. (Cf. Heb. 1. 5-13.)

IN the beginning was the [1][a]Word, and the Word was with [b]God, and the Word was [c]God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

His pre-incarnation work. (Cf. Heb. 1. 2.)

3 [d]All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was [e]life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness [f]comprehended it not.

Ministry of John Baptist. (See vs. 29–34. Cf. Mt. 3. 1-17; Mk. 1. 1-11; Lk. 3. 1-23.)

6 There was a [g]man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a [h]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 [i]He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

p 1 Tim.3.16.

Jesus Christ the true Light. (Cf. John 8. 12; 9. 5; 12. 46.)

9 That was the true [j]Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the [k]world.

10 He was in the [k]world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

The two classes: sons and unbelievers. (Cf. 1 John 3. 1, 2; 5. 11, 12.)

11 [l]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he [m]power to become the sons of God, even to them that [n]believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the [o]flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The incarnation. (Cf. Mt. 1. 18-23; Lk. 1. 30-35; Rom. 1. 3, 4.)

14 And the [p]Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

[1] Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The Greek term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3-5, 9, 14-18; 14. 9-11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

10 He was in the [k]world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

The two classes: sons and unbelievers. (Cf. 1 John 3. 1, 2; 5. 11, 12.)

11 [l]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he [m]power to become the sons of God, even to them that [n]believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the [o]flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The incarnation. (Cf. Mt. 1. 18–23; Lk. 1. 30–35; Rom. 1. 3, 4.)

14 And the [p]Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

[1] Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The Greek term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3–5, 9, 14–18; 14. 9–11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

[1](1. 1). Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3–5, 9, 14–18; 14. 9–11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

MORNING PRAYER. 7.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ At the end of the whole Portion of the Psalms or Selection from the Psalter, the Gloria in excelsis may be sung or said instead of the Gloria Patri.

¶ Then shall be read the FIRST LESSON, according to the Table or Calendar. After which shall be said or sung the following Hymn.

¶ Note, That before every Lesson, the Minister shall say, Here beginneth such a Chapter [or Verse of such a Chapter] of such a Book; and after every Lesson, Here endeth the First [or the Second] Lesson.

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud : the Heavens, and all the Powers therein;

To thee Cherubim and Seraphim : continually do cry,

Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge thee;

The Father : of an infinite Majesty;

Thine adorable, true : and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there!
Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;
Be thou alone my constant flame.

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone!
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown!
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May every act, word, thought be love!

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

20 EVENING PRAYER.

God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Declaration of Absolution, or Remission of Sins.

¶ To be made by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, hath given power, and commandment, to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all those who truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who, with hearty repentance and true faith, turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer; the People still kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done

JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to thee,

Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone!
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown!
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May every act, word, thought be love!

3 O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire or seek, but thee!

4 Still let thy love point out my way!
What wondrous things thy love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my word, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

5 In suffering, be thy love my peace;
In weakness, be thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that dark, final hour
Of death, be thou my Guide and Friend,
That I may love thee without end. Amen.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's Name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Bows down to wood and stone.

"Very odd!" said Mr. Winkle; "I'll be down directly." He hurriedly wrapped himself in a travelling-shawl and dressing-gown, and proceeded down-stairs. He turned round as Mr. Winkle entered, and made a stiff inclination of the head. Having ordered the attendants to retire, and closed the door very carefully, he said, "Mr. Winkle, I presume?"

Stories for Little Children

Cloth binding. Each, $1.50.

Covers in full color by Kate Greenaway and others. Attractively illustrated in color and in black and white by Hattie Longstreet Price.

It is exceedingly difficult to find interesting and yet simple stories for children of tender age. Here are four books about seven cousins and their animal playmates. The good times they have all happen at Grandmother's, out in the country where there is a big, big house and everything that could make a child happy. With these four books there is also included a most attractive edition of Mother Goose with other old standard fairy tales.

THE ALL-ALONE HOUSE. By Ruth Campbell. Colin has the mumps and when he gets better, he goes to Grandmother's, away out in the country, to recuperate. And such good times he has with the little cousins and Rex and the paint pots—but that is the story.

THAT PINK AND BLUE AFFAIR. By Ruth Campbell. Grandmother gives a birthday party for Marcia, because she is ten years old and only two of the cousins had been ten. It was a glorious outdoor party, with a merry-go-round and a band and ice cream and all kinds of good things to eat. And the next day came the pony and cart for all the cousins.

THE RUNAWAY SMALLS. By Ruth Campbell. It's funny how runaways start. The children really went on a picnic with Rex and Sandy and Pat, the dogs, and Peekaboo, the pony. And when they started home they took the wrong turning and the next thing they knew they were lost. Then Grandmother came and found them, but that didn't stop them from having lots of other adventures.

KIDDIES AND GROWN-UPS TOO. By Ruth Campbell. Colin comes back to Grandmother's for the summer and finds Kenneth staying there, too. They invent "The Magic Carpet," which helps a lot when a tramp tried to rob Grandmother. They and the cousins evolve some truly original money-making ideas when they need cash. The Grown-ups are at first, to say the least, unreasonable, but they finally see the matter through the children's eyes.

OLD MOTHER GOOSE and Other Fairy Tales. Whatever else may change, Mother Goose will never go out of fashion. All the most important of the old rhymes are presented here, together with other favorites, such as Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Puss-in-Boots and other imaginative stories.

This hymnal aims to bring comfort, confidence, and courage to those who are mentally and physically ill. The editor consulted with psychiatrists, musicians, and clergymen, and the hymnal, therefore, not only represents his individual judgment but the judgment of those who speak with authority in each of these fields. $20.00 per 100 copies, plus expressage; single copies, 25 cents.

The Pilgrim Hymnal. The years of service which it has seen have tested and approved the merits of the Pilgrim Hymnal plan. There have been, however, many changes made to improve the hymnal in every respect that experience has shown desirable. The book will prove a wonderful aid to a revived and enriched devotional service. The Pilgrim Hymnal contains 713 hymns and chants, 127 pages of Responsive Reading and other aids to worship, and 34 pages of indexes. The printed page is wonderfully clear and legible. It is printed from an entirely new font of type, cut especially for it, thus enabling the use of one size larger type than is employed in most other hymn books. The paper on which the book is printed is light in weight, thin, yet exceedingly opaque. Size, 8⅝ x 6½ x 1 inch. Bound in full cloth, $1.50, 100 copies $130.00. Carriage extra.

WEYMOUTH, RICHARD FRANCIS — Revised Edition

The Modern Speech New Testament. 1924 Edition. Completely revised and printed from new type.

Modern English translations of the New Testament have been criticised as too colloquial and undignified, or as too harshly literal. Dr. Weymouth's famous version avoids these pitfalls. While thoroughly modern in diction and phrasing, it is a dignified and worthy vehicle of the thoughts of the New Testament writers.

This new edition has been revised by Rev. S. W. Green, author of many of the articles in Hastings' One Volume Bible Dictionary; Rev. Prof. A. J. D. Farrar, of Regents Park College; and Prof. H. T. Andrews, one of the contributors to Peake's One Volume Bible Commentary. The publication of this revised edition is a notable event in contemporary Biblical scholarship.

Margaret Slattery's Books

For Young People and Leaders of Young People

YOU CAN LEARN TO TEACH

This is Miss Slattery's newest book

Recommended for teacher-training classes and for individual study. Part I is devoted to a study of certain characteristics and motives which a Teacher should possess; Part II is a study of the Pupil. Sound and modern in its pedagogy and psychology, it is written in the author's inimitable, popular style, so that the book may meet the needs of teachers who have had no special training in teaching methods or made no studies of the characteristics of childhood and youth. It will give every teacher—experienced and inexperienced alike—practical teaching help and a sympathetic understanding of the members of the class. Price, $1.35.

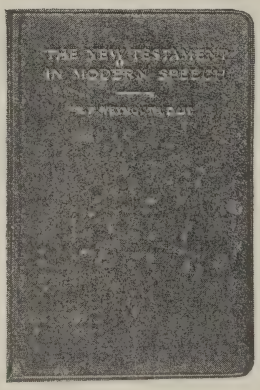
Weymouth's New Testament in Modern Speech

(Revised Edition)



A Reverent and Scholarly Translation

Dr. Norman E. Richardson of Northwestern University says: "The dignity and reverence of this translation have not been sacrificed to ultra-colloquialism while the style has been a great aid in making clear and meaningful the spiritual concepts originally expressed in Greek. It seems to me that you now have the last word in modern translations."

SHORTHAND WORKS

By ISAAC PITMAN, The Inventor of Phonography

Course in Isaac Pitman Shorthand. 192 pages, cloth, $1.60. Latest Revised Edition—"New Era." Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

In this work Isaac Pitman Shorthand is presented in twenty simple lessons. The arrangement of the principles is such that real business dictation is possible from the first lessons.

The Course is supplemented by fifty up-to-date business letters and many pages of literary selections in engraved shorthand. Suggestive phrases, complete lists of Wordsigns and Contractions, together with contractions for the principal cities, afford an easy reference for the student.

This new text enables the average student to acquire a complete mastery of shorthand in the shortest time without sacrificing any of the completeness of Isaac Pitman Shorthand.

Key to "Course." Cloth, 70c.

The "Key" contains the shorthand notes of all longhand exercises and the transcript of all shorthand exercises in the "Course."

Supplementary Exercises in Isaac Pitman Shorthand. Book I, limp cloth, Lessons 1-11, 71 pages, 50c. Book II, limp cloth, Lessons 12-20, 85 pages, 75c. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

These exercises are arranged in lessons in accordance with the "Course." Each lesson consists of exercises of words, sentences, paragraphs, and business letters in longhand for dictation practice and similar exercises in engraved shorthand for reading and copying practice.

Each lesson provides a review of the material in the corresponding lesson in the instruction book. The word exercises are so arranged that groups of words can conveniently be selected for drill on some specific principle. The sentence, paragraph, and letter exercises provide a thorough drill on the entire lesson as a unit.

Supplementary Exercises is in itself a complete dictation course containing more than 100 business letters and business paragraphs and more than 400 sentences selected from business correspondence of all kinds.

It is not only a handbook for use during the theory course, but is of even greater value to review the principles of the system as an introduction to speed dictation.

Correspondence Course in Pitman Shorthand. A series of 20 lessons printed in loose-leaf form, each lesson separate, and sold in sets in stout envelopes, at $1.75 net.

Prepared by expert teachers in Pitman's Schools for self-tuition or for use through Correspondence Course Schools. To be used in conjunction with the standard textbook—"New Era Course." For home study this "Course" will help somewhat as a substitute for a teacher, when it is impossible to attend school.

Pitman's Shorthand Writing Exercises and Examination Tests. 220 pages, cloth, $1.00. Adopted by New York Board of Education.

This work contains exhaustive classified lists of words, illustrative of every rule in the system and over 100 graduated sentence exercises in ordinary print for writing or dictation practice.

As an aid to the teacher in preparing tests the exercises are invaluable. The writing of them by the student provides a complete shorthand vocabulary, as well as a thorough grounding in the principles of phrase writing.

Key to Pitman's Shorthand Writing Exercises and Examination Tests. 220 pages, cloth, $1.30.

The exercises which appear in the regular printed longhand edition of this book are here reproduced in engraved shorthand.

The "Key" is a shorthand reader for class use which develops the ability to write, read, and transcribe notes rapidly and accurately.

When exercises are assigned from the longhand edition, much time can be saved by having students correct their own papers from the shorthand edition.

This can be done only in two ways: by slowly and laboriously learning through the few opportunities for practice work that present themselves from time to time, or to profit from the experiences of others.

TYPEWRITING

A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting. Published in three editions: Stiff paper cover, 120 pages, $1.00. Cloth cover, 120 pages, $1.35. High School Edition, 208 pages, $1.60. By CHARLES E. SMITH. Adopted by the New York, Boston, Baltimore (Md.), Milwaukee (Wis.) Newark (N.J.), Trenton (N.J.), Boards of Education. Also by the California State Board of Education.

The Sixteenth edition, greatly enlarged and completely re-written, is more than an enlargement or a revision. It is a new book. The work is presented in the most instructive and teachable manner, and has won the commendation of the World's Greatest Typists and typewriting teachers everywhere. All world's typing records for both speed and accuracy are held by typists who studied from "A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting." It has justly been called the typewriting method of the Champions. A special edition of the complete volume has been issued, using the method of fingering in which "B" is struck with the left hand.

Pitman's Loose-Leaf Typewriting Exercises. On cardboard, 50 cards, $1.50 a set. By LOUISE MCKEE. Adopted by the New York, Philadelphia, Rochester (N. Y.), Boards of Education, Temple University, Philadelphia, etc.

The unique form for these Supplementary Typewriting Exercises was chosen with two ends in view—

(1) To provide new material for the teaching of Transcription and Tabulation which the teacher knows has never been seen by the pupils.

(2) To furnish models for both of these types of work to be studied by the pupils after they have completed their work—models by which they can correct their own errors. In large classes it is impossible for the teacher to give that close inspection necessary to catch every error on every paper, and, heretofore, it has been equally impossible to place before the pupils the perfect model of the work they have attempted to do.

High Speed in Typewriting. 108 pages, cloth, $1.25. By A. M. KENNEDY and FRED JARRETT. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, California State Board of Education, Pittsburg, (Pa.) Board of Education, and Indiana State Normal School.

Complete in Fifty Lessons. Each lesson is divided into four exercises. The fourth exercise of each of the fifty lessons is graded in such a way that the operator commences the work at a speed of 4.7 strokes per second, or 50 words in the minute; and finishes the fiftieth lesson with a speed of 9.3 strokes per second, or 102 words a minute.

The use of "High Speed in Typewriting" will develop an unusual degree of typewriting skill.

Advanced Typewriting and Office Training. 155 pages, 60c. New Enlarged Edition. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

Practice book for advanced students. Teachers will find this book an excellent aid in preparing pupils not only for the Regent's Examinations, but for a better understanding of what a stenographer and typist should know in the business world. This work has been placed upon the Authorized List by the Board of Regents, Albany, N.Y., for use in all schools conducting commercial classes.

"It is well organized, written in clear, simple English and contains an unusual number of good exercises."—New Jersey Journal of Education.

Press and Other Opinions

" . . . a liberal education."—New York Times.

" . . . a classic in business expression."—New York World.

" For comprehensiveness in scope, practicability of treatment, and a 'human interest' style we do not know its equal."—The Literary Review—New York Evening Post.

" It is exceedingly complete and essential. Certainly anyone who is interested in better business letter writing needs a copy of this book." —John M. Avent, Chairman, English Department, Julia Richman High School, New York, N.Y.

" The work is illuminating, practical and authoritative. For handy reference in business offices it is invaluable. As a text for the classroom there is none better "—J. A. Luman, Vice-Principal, Pierce School of Business Administration, Philadelphia, Pa.

" I think one of the greatest compliments that can be paid 'Business Letter Practice' is that out of sixty students in the last class I had, only one wanted to sell his book. These people are going out to positions as book-keepers and stenographers and other office positions and they have seen how much good they may get out of this book if they keep it on their desk."—T. M. Dickerson, Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky.

" This work is equally valuable for the teacher and student of stenography, for the teacher and student of business, and for the manager of the business office or the correspondence supervisor. It is essentially a guide-book along the lines laid down by the Better Letter Movement. Criticism of modern business letter practice has been overdone in recent years. However, this type of book is really valuable in pointing out essential principles and serving to direct attention toward better practice in specific instances."—Harvard Business Review (Cambridge, Mass.).

VOCATIONAL, ART AND CRAFT WORKS

Artistic Leather Craft. 120 pages, 5½ in. by 8½ in., with numerous illustrations, cloth, $1.50.

The extent of the popularity of Art Leather Craft during recent years is both extraordinary and gratifying: extraordinary, because leather craft, so decorative, and, withal, so eminently useful, has had to wait so long to come ir to its own; and gratifying because it is satisfactory to find the general public, in its capacity either as maker or buyer, so eagerly pursuing a craft that is so useful anc so artistic. The pursuit of such a beautiful craft is distinctly of benefit in another direction: it is so capable of arousing the real love for beautiful things that is inherent in humanity, although it may be latent, that its spread should receive all possible encouragement.

Artificial Flower Making. 150 pages, 8¼ in. by 6¼ in., 5 coloured insets and 44 half-tone plates, cloth, $2.50. By Mrs. JANET BASKIN.

A Practical Craft for Trade and Domestic Training Classes, Milliners, Dressmakers, and the Home Worker.

This book contains an organized course of instruction in the making of artificial flowers from many kinds of material. Most of the artificial flowers for sale in shops are made from specially prepared materials that can be obtained only by those in the trade. The craft of artificial flower making, explained in this book, differs especially from the shop industry in that the worker builds the flower completely herself, making everything of which it is composed.

A special feature is the very large number of photographs. These include illustrations of the different stages in the building of flowers, leaves, sprays, etc.; black-and-white plates of finished flowers, and a number of colored photographs. A large number of artificial flowers, made under this author's direction, have been among the finished exhibits at the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley.

Their technical directions are practical and intelligible, and are calculated not only to assist the student greatly in his work, but to enable the art lover to grasp surely the principles by which all pastel painting that is to be reckoned as sound and legitimate should be directed. The sections into which the book is divided cover adequately the whole ground over which the pastel-painter is likely to travel, and the explanatory text is ample for all educational purposes; and the illustrations deserve high praise for their artistic merit and quality.

Water Color Painting, The Technique of. Size, 11 in. by 8¾ in. Cloth gilt, with 32 full-page colored plates, $6.00. By L. RICHMOND, R.B.A., and J. LITTLEJOHNS, R.B.A. Authors of "The Art of Painting in Pastel."

This new book, in which two well-known artists explain the various materials and methods available for the water-colorist, has met with the unqualified praise of artists, art teachers and students as well as the Art Press. The following are a few extracts—

"Messrs. Richmond and Littlejohn's book which concerns only the craft of the water-colorist is a repertory of experiment well illustrated by color plates. . . . The survey is thorough and to a water-colorist who has already achieved with reasonable proficiency personal habits the book should usefully serve the purpose of a first-aid kit."—The Saturday Review of Literature. (New York.)

"Will be welcome by many art teachers. The interest in water-color work has grown considerably and many art teachers are looking for a comprehensive book on this subject. This new volume is well printed and illustrated with many handsome color pages."—School Arts Magazine. (Worcester, Mass.)

"The book is quite the best 'guide' that has so far appeared, and of equal value to the beginner as the mature student. The joint authors are to be congratulated on their success."—Apollo.

"Few books on the technical side have succeeded in setting down so much as these born teachers now offer in a volume equally fascinating for its accuracy in advice as for examples of accomplished workmanship in the numerous and well printed plates. . . . This delightful book by two enthusiastic craftsmen is a valuable work, and there are few water-colorists who could fail to benefit by reading it carefully."—Artwork.

"They (the authors) explain a number of effects which are produced by means of materials which will greatly surprise all unacquainted with all 'the tricks of the trade,' be they merely enthusiasts of water-color painting or old hands. . . . The illustrations are all very fine."—Drawing and Design.

Woodcarving: Design and Workmanship. 320 pages, 79 drawings by the Author. 16 pages of collotype reproductions, $2.50. Second Edition. By GEORGE JACK.

"Undoubtedly the best guide to Woodcarving extant. . . . A practical work, written with clearness and literary power by a practical man . . . of great artistic talent. . . . The illustrations are excellent."—The Builders' Journal.

Wood-Block Printing. A Description of the Craft of Wood-cutting and Color-printing based on the Japanese Practice. MORLEY FLETCHER.

By EDWARD JOHNSTON. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, and Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York City.

". . . This book belongs to that extremely rare class in which every line bears the impress of complete mastery of the subject. We congratulate Mr. Johnston on having produced a work at once original and complete."—The Athenaeum.

Plain and Ornamental Lettering. 88 pages, size 6½ × 8. Illus. $1.00. By EDWIN G. FOOKS. A Practical Guide to Ticket and Showcard Writing, Signwriting, and other forms of Decorative Lettering.

It may seem strange that the publishers of that acknowledged "standard" book on lettering, namely Writing, Illuminating and Lettering, by Edward Johnston, should think it advisable to issue another work on the same subject. The explanation is that Mr. Johnston's book is academic in treatment, and unnecessarily exhaustive for the non-craftsman. There are many artists, architects, designers, shopkeepers and others to whom business lettering is necessary but of subsidiary importance, who will welcome this simple and practical treatment.

Boards of Education, New York University, University of Chicago, University of California, Ohio University, University of Santa Clara, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota.*

This standard text was, in its first edition, recognized to be one of the most complete works on geographical science yet produced. The author has made a substantial revision of the book, bringing the facts and figures right up to the present date, and introducing a quantity of new subject matter and several new maps.

"Is a mine of information, scholarly written, and as a source book for grade and high school teachers it is excellent. Its value as a college text needs no comment."—The Journal of Geography (Chicago).

The Language of Advertising 508 pages, 153 illus., cloth, gilt, $3.50. By JOHN B. OPDYCKE, Author of Business Letter Practice.

This new work constitutes a comprehensive treatment of both the science and the art of advertising in its present-day manifestations. It is calculated for use in the publicity office, in the school and college classroom, and in the copy-writingl aboratory. It is never too technical, however, to be of absorbing interest to the general reader. It may be read for entertainment and inspiration quite as much as for information and instruction. It differs from other advertising books on the market chiefly in that it establishes close-up and practicable relationships between advertising and literature, a thesis that no other book on the subject has attempted. Thoroughly stimulating interpretations of present-day copy specimens, together with novel suggestions for the construction and focusing of copy, make the book invaluable in the hands of the student of advertising. Numerous challenging exercises, a detailed index, a readable style, a profusion of well-pointed illustrations, and—An introduction by Mr. Percy S. Straus, Vice-President of R. H. Macy and Company, Inc., one of the largest and best-known mercantile establishments in America, all go to make this new publication unique and distinguished in its voluminous field.

"The author is keen, practical and concise, and he gives reasons for every point emphasized. Whether he is advising and discussing newspaper or magazine or billboard announcements, there is a little philosophical guidance, a touch of pleasant wisdom which makes the whole thing linger in the memory."—New York Times.

"This is one of the few books of advertising that can be thoroughly recommended just as highly to the practising publicist as well as to one who is literary curious."—The Journal of Commerce.

"Mr. Opdycke has done more than compile, he has illuminated every page with his own enthusiasm. Here is a book for the blue days that every advertising man knows—the days when ideas simply will not come and words simply will not behave. By which I mean to say that it is a stimulating book, an electric starter that will turn the mental engine over until it (catches) even on the leanest mixture of ideas that a jaded copy man ever tried to run on."—The Mailbag, Cleveland, Ohio.

Principles of Commercial History. 280 pages, cloth, $2.25. By James Stephenson, M.A., M.Com., B.Sc.

It is not sufficient for the business man to know merely the routine of his branch of work; he must learn to form an opinion of his own, to be able to judge more exactly the phenomena of modern business life and to draw from the past conclusions concerning the future. This interesting presentation embraces a description of the general economic condition when the country under study first became known; the surplus raw materials grown which could be exchanged for the products of other lands; the prevailing means of communication; the influence of political treaties on the economic life of the people; and the factors which have gradually led to changes in the methods of industry.

English Grammar and Composition. 5 by 7½ in. 320 pages, cloth, $1.50. By W. Jayne Weston, B.Sc.

In this volume the theory of the language is made interesting and is taught with effect by being brought into union with the practice of the language. The book is a manual of Grammar taught through Composition. The writer's object has been not to gather together a set of rules and definitions, unattractive and uninspiring because divorced from practical use, but rather to examine the mechanism of the living English tongue, and to do this so as to arouse intelligent interest in the facts of language.

A Guide to English Composition. 112 pages, cloth 65c. By the Rev. J. H. Bacon.

This work is a veritable epitome of all matters relating to the theatre, and is recognized generally as being a work which cannot easily be dispensed with by anyone interested in the theatre of to-day.

"To those who have had trouble in locating authors of plays they want to produce I always refer to "Who's Who in the Theatre," the new edition of which is just out. It contains not only the biographies but their mail addresses."—Leon Edward Joseph in the "New York Herald-Tribune."

"The present is the fifth issue of this invaluable reference work for those having to do with the theatre. Since the first issue appeared in 1912 it has been accepted as a standard work in England, and this country. It is a mine of interesting information for those concerned with the world of the theatre and its people. This biographical record of the contemporary stage shows on the face of it that the compiler has put in a terrific amount of work and research to make of it the invaluable record that it presents, all carefully arranged and completely indexed."—The Boston Globe.

PITMAN'S BUSINESS BOOKS

ADVERTISING, SALESMANSHIP, ETC.

The Language of Advertising. 508 pages, 153 illus., cloth, gilt, $3.50. By JOHN OPDYCKE, Author of Business Letter Practice.

This new work constitutes a comprehensive treatment of both the science and the art of advertising in its present-day manifestations. It is calculated for use in the publicity office, in the school and college classroom, and in the copy-writing laboratory. It is never too technical, however, to be of absorbing interest to the general reader. It may be read for entertainment and inspiration quite as much as for information and instruction. It differs from other advertising books on the market chiefly in that it establishes close-up and practicable relationships between advertising and literature, a thesis that no other book on the subject has attempted. Thoroughly stimulating interpretations of present-day copy specimens, together with novel suggestions for the construction and focusing of copy, make the book invaluable in the hands of the student of advertising. Numerous challenging exercises, a detailed index, a readable style, a profusion of well-pointed illustrations, and—An introduction by Mr. Percy S. Straus, Vice-President of R. H. Macy and Company, Inc., one of the largest and best-known mercantile establishments in America, all go to make this new publication unique and distinguished in its voluminous field.

"The author is keen, practical and concise, and he gives reasons for every point emphasized. Whether he is advising and discussing newspaper or magazine or billboard announcements, there is a little philosophical guidance, a touch of pleasant wisdom which makes the whole thing linger in the memory."—New York Times.

"New York Evening Post."

". . . we do not know its equal."

"New York World."

". . . a classic in business expression."

The "New York Herald"—

"John B. Opdycke is a high priest of the cult of Big Business. He has had considerable experience in conducting advertising campaigns as well as in teaching. He has the confidence of several large scale advertisers who have been willing to assist him in the compilation of this work. His book is full of examples of the very best modern business letters and they show that the business world is levying a contribution from art and literature to further salesmanship. . . . There is much ginger in his style . . . The book is to be commended for having a good index."

The "Mail Bag" (Cleveland).
"For those who want to write efficiently, intelligently, and purposefully . . . is practical rather than theoretical. At $2.50, which is not more than half of and certainly at least a third below, the usual price for a book of this kind and size."

"It is refreshing to find an author approaching the subject of business expression from the angle of style. This is exactly the approach that Mr. Grout makes. The extremely well-written preface to the book, together with part one, might well be entitled the philosophy of style as applied to commercial English . . . the author's theory, and his exposition of it, are at all times sound; his division and subdivision of content are logical, and his illustrative materials nicely adapted. He himself writes in lucid and animated style, and he everywhere evinces expert knowledge of and experience in the subjects he discusses."—Saturday Review of Literature (New York).

ECONOMICS, INDUSTRIAL ADMINISTRATION, COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY, WELFARE WORK, AND HISTORY

The Geography of Commerce. 440 pages, illustration and maps, cloth, $1.50. By W. P. RUTTER.

Geography is now humanistic. It is destined to rank among the foremost of educational subjects, and is gaining much from the biological and sociological sciences. Perhaps, of the many branches of this wide subject, the commercial is the most fascinating and essentially human, for, in its fullness, it is a deep study of the interaction of Man and Nature as seen in the production, transportation, and consumption of economic products.

The earth is the "home and mother of man." His destiny is shaped by his environment, most geographical. This shaping forms the main part of the study of this book. We pass from the physical background of Commercial Geography to the actual commerce of nations, the many economic regions of the world being traced to their geographical distribution.

A glance at the list of contents is sufficient to convey an idea of the wide scope of this work.

The author was for many years a lecturer of Commercial Geography, and in this new work he has given the reader a broad survey of the subject. Although it is written primarily for students in the universities and the higher commercial schools, the book provides the general reader with much that is thought-provoking and stimulating to the imagination.

The book is profusely illustrated with maps and diagrams, and for those who wish to pursue their researches the comprehensive bibliography will be found invaluable.

"Is a mine of information, scholarly written and as a source book for grade and high school teachers it is excellent. Its value as a college text needs no comment."—The Journal of Geography (Chicago).

"A very interesting book . . . the author has given much thought and study to underlying conditions and is familiar to many executives through his previous writings. It refers to the lack of personal touch between the employer and the employed, and explains in a clear, concise way, the progress made in the many different systems in welfare work . . . is the first publication to explain this interesting subject as the many other industrial welfare books do not deal with the underlying principles."—The Silk Journal (New York.)

Though much of the contents relate to purely material means for improving working conditions, the authors emphasize their belief that it is only in so far as these material devices are the expression of a spiritual outlook on life that they will secure any permanent improvement in general conditions.

The author has embodied in this book the results of twenty-five years' experience as a professional photographer.

"The author has given us a practical work, filled with good working instructions that if followed will certainly make the thorny paths easier. All the necessary material and tools are described and the particular methods of their use are given with an elaboration which might seem unnecessary except for the fact that it is only by attention to these small details that good work can be effected. The working-in of backgrounds is dealt with, also finishing in monochrome and color, and in this last section the wax medium and finishing in oil processes are exceptionally good, the former being comparatively new. Numerous line and half-tone illustrations give, where necessary, point to the story that is well told."—American Photography (Boston).

Printing: Its History, Practice, and Progress. 160 pages, 45 illus., cloth, $1.50. By H. A. MADDOX.

Among the many books on Printing there appears to be a need for a compact work particularly adapted to the requirements of the general reader, the printing student, the advertising specialist, and those who aspire to the higher administrative positions in the printing world where a good working knowledge of the all-round technique of the trade is a necessity. The aim of the author has been to produce such a book and, while rendering it as thoroughly practical as possible, to avoid too exhaustive an inquiry into the higher technicalities of printing and particularly its mechanics. Recent innovations have provided the author with an opportunity to place before his readers the later developments in the art and practice of printing.

"Gives an exceptionally good brief history of printing, and in its explanations of machines and processes it is very up to date and clear... the book can be a very real help."—The Printing Art (Cambridge, Mass.).

Pierced hands and feet. PSALMS The Lord my shepherd.

PSALM 22

To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?
2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.
3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.
7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.
9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.
10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.
11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help.
12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.
13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.
15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.
16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.
17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.
18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.
19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.
20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.
21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.
22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.
25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.
27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
28 For the kingdom is the LORD'S: and he is the governor among the nations.
29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.
30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation, 31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM 24

A Psalm of David.

THE earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maran-atha.
23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.
6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.
8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:
9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:
10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;
11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.
13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;
14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;
16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa.
17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?
18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN.

998 CHAPTER 1

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimony of John. 89 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Ju'dah have anointed me king over them.

8 But Ab'ner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Ma-ha-na'im;

9 And made him king over Gil'e-ad, and over the Ash'ur-ites, and over Jez're-el, and over E'phra-im, and over Ben'ja-min, and over all Is'ra-el.

10 Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, was forty years old, when he began to reign over Is'ra-el, and reigned two years. But the house of Ju'dah followed Da'vid.

11 And the time that Da'vid was king in He'bron, over the house of Ju'dah, was seven years and six months.

12 And Ab'ner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, went out from Ma-ha-na'im to Gib'e-on.

13 And Jo'ab the son of Zer-u-i'ah, and the servants of Da'vid, went out, and met together by the pool of Gib'e-on: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Ab'ner said to Jo'ab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Jo'ab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose, and went over by number, twelve of Ben'ja-min, which pertained to Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of Da'vid.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Hel'kath-haz'zu-rim, which is in Gib'e-on.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Ab'ner was beaten, and the men of Is'ra-el, before the servants of Da'vid.

18 And there were three sons of Zer-u-i'ah there, Jo'ab, and A-bish'a-i, and As'a-hel: and As'a-hel was as light of foot as a wild roe.

19 And As'a-hel pursued after Ab'ner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Ab'ner.

20 Then Ab'ner looked behind him, and said, Art thou As'a-hel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Ab'ner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But As'a-hel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Ab'ner said again to As'a-hel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Jo'ab thy brother?

23 Howbeit, he refused to turn aside: wherefore Ab'ner, with the hinder end of the spear, smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where As'a-hel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Jo'ab also and A-bish'a-i pursued after Ab'ner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Am'mah, that lieth before Gi'ah, by the way of the wilderness of Gib'e-on.

25 And the children of Ben'ja-min gathered themselves together after Ab'ner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Ab'ner called to Jo'ab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Jo'ab said, As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Jo'ab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Is'-ra-el no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Ab'ner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jor'dan, and went through all Bith'-ron, and they came to Ma-ha-na'im.

30 And Jo'ab returned from following Ab'ner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Da'vid's servants nineteen men and As'a-hel.

31 But the servants of Da'vid had smit-ten of Ben'ja-min, and of Ab'ner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they took up As'a-hel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth'-le-hem. And Jo'ab and his men went all night and they came to He'bron at break of day.

CHAPTER 3. 270

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of Da'vid: but Da'vid waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto Da'vid were sons born in He'bron: and his firstborn was Am'non, of A-hin'o-am the Jez're-el-it-ess;

3 And his second, Chil'e-ab, of Ab'i-gail the wife of Na'bal the Car'mel-ite; and the third, Ab'sa-lom, the son of Ma'a-cah the daughter of Tal'mai king of Ge'shur;

4 And the fourth, Ad-o-ni'jah, the son of Hag'gith; and the fifth, Sheph-a-ti'ah, the son of Ab'i-tal;

5 And the sixth, Ith're-am, by Eg'lah, Da'vid's wife. These were born to Da'vid in He'bron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of Da'vid, that Ab'ner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Riz'pah, the daughter of A-i'ah: and Ish-bo'sheth said to Ab'ner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's con-cubine?

8 Then was Ab'ner very wroth for the words of Ish-bo'sheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Ju'dah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clĕ´-ŏ-phăs, and Mary Măg´-dă-lēne.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this Joseph of Ăr-ĭm-ă-thæ´-ă, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nĭc-ŏ-dē´-mŭs, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20 [1017

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Măg´-dă-lēne early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

CHAPTER 16

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAPTER 11

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.

32 And their villages were, Ē´-tăm, and Ā´-ĭn, Rimmon, and Tō´-chĕn, and Ăsh´-ăn, five cities:

33 And all their villages that were round about the same cities, unto Bā´-ăl. These were their habitations, and their genealogy.

34 And Mĕ-shō´-băb, and Jăm´-lēch, and Jō´-shăh the son of Ăm-ă-zī´-ăh,

35 And Jō´-ĕl, and Jehu the son of Jŏs-ĭ-bī´-ăh, the son of Sĕ-raî´-ăh, the son of Ăs´-ĭ-ĕl,

36 And Ĕl-ĭ-ō-ē´-naî, and Jă-ă-kō´-băh, and Jĕsh-ō-haî´-ăh, and Ă-saî´-ăh, and Ăd´-ĭ-ĕl, and Jĕ-sĭm´-ĭ-ĕl, and Bĕ-naî´-ăh,

37 And Zĭ´-zā the son of Shĭ´-phī, the son of Ăl´-lōn, the son of Jĕ-daî´-ăh, the son of Shĭm´-rī, the son of Shĕm-aî´-ăh;

38 These mentioned by their names were princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly.

39 ¶ And they went to the entrance of Gē´-dōr, even unto the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for they of Ham had dwelt there of old.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hĕz-ē-kī´-ăh king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was pasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Sē´-ĭr, having for their captains Pĕl-ă-tī´-ăh, and Nē-ă-rī´-ăh, and Rĕ-phaî´-ăh, and Ŭz´-zĭ-ĕl, the sons of Ĭsh´-ī.

43 And they smote the rest of the Ă-măl´-ĕk-ītes that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

NOW the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:)

3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hā´-nŏch, and Păl´-ŭ, Hĕz´-rŏn, and Căr´-mī.

4 The sons of Jō´-ĕl; Shĕm-aî´-ăh his son, Gog his son, Shĭm´-ĕ-ī his son,

5 Mī´-căh his son, Rĕ-aî´-ă his son, Bā´-ăl his son,

6 Bēer´-ăh his son, whom Tĭl´-găth-pĭl-nē´-sĕr king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women. 9 Christ himself appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two going into the country: 14 then to the apostles, 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the gospel: 19 and ascendeth into heaven.

AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, t ples and Peter that h fore you into Galilee
ye see him, as he said

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

THEN Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was b the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to night, that the LORD Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host.

12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [e] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when [f] the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [g] they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [i] why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these [m] vanities unto [n] the living God, [o] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past [p] suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 [q] Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [r] gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with [s] food and [t] gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And [u] there came thither certain Jews from [x] Antioch and [y] Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, [z] having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to [a] Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and [2] had taught many, they returned again to [b] Lystra, and to [y] Iconium, and [x] Antioch,

22 [1] Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [k] we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them [m] elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout [c] Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in [d] Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to [r] Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to [s] the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [w] opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15

AND [b] certain men which came down from Judæa taught [c] the brethren, and said, [d] Except ye be circumcised [e] after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and [h] elders about this question.

3 And [i] being brought on their way by the church, they passed through [k] Phenice and Samaria, [l] declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were [r] received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they [s] declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there [1] rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that [a] a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, [b] bare them witness, [c] giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And [e] put no difference between us and them, [f] purifying their hearts [g] by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [j] to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that [l] through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders [w] God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [x] James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 [z] Simeon [1] hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and [w] will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

CHAPTER 1

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as [b]they delivered them unto us, which [c]from the beginning were [d]eyewitnesses, and [e]ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, [h]most excellent [i]Theophilus,

4 [k]That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was [m]in the days of Herod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, [p]of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both [q]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord [r]blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [s]in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [u]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And [v]the whole multitude of the people were [w]praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of [x]the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, [z]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and [c]thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall [f]rejoice at his birth.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 [c]And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to [g]turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [l]to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people [i]prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, [k]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [n]Gabriel, [o]that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for [t]he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [g]take away my reproach among men.

26 And in [a]the sixth month the angel [b]Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27 To a virgin [d]espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, [e]of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.
47 ¶ [a]And while he yet spake, lo, [b]Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.
49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.
50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
51 And, behold, [h]one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew [i]his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.
52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for [j]all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.
53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?
54 But how then shall [l]the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done, that the [l]scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [n]all the disciples forsook him, and fled.
57 ¶ [o]And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to [r]Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;
60 But found none: yea, though many [v]false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,
61 And said, This fellow said, [w]I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.
62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?
63 But [z]Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [a]I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, [c]the Son of God.
64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, [e]Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.
66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty [c]of death.
67 Then did they [d]spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with [1]the palms of their hands,
68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?
69 ¶ [e]Now Peter sat without in the [f]palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of [g]Galilee.
70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.
71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.
72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.
73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for [k]thy speech bewrayeth thee.
74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.
75 And Peter [m]remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, [n]Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

[o]WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:
2 And when they had bound him, [s]they led him away, and delivered him to [t]Pontius Pilate the governor.
3 ¶ [u]Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,
4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.
5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and [x]hanged himself.
6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the [y]treasury, because it is the price of blood.
7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
8 Wherefore that field was called, [b]The field of blood, [a]unto this day.
9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [f]And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, [2]whom they of the children of Israel did value;

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: [a] a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The [b] heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and [b] the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage [2] appointed unto him by God.

457] CHAPTER 21

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, [g] mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be [5] troubled?

5 [6] Mark me, and be astonished, and [7] lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 [l] Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed [m] is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are [9] safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the [p] organ.

13 They spend their days [11] in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and [c] what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: [d] the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft [e] is the [1] candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as [f] chaff that the storm [3] carrieth away.

19 God layeth up [4] his iniquity [g] for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and [h] he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 [k] Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in [7] his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His [8] breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They [n] shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, [o] Where is the house of the prince? and where are [10] the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, and he reigned eight years in Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Ĭs'ra-el, like as did the house of Ā'hăb; for[1] he had the daughter of Ā'hăb to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of Dā'vid, because of the covenant that he had made with Dā'vid, and as he promised to give a [a]light[4] to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Ē'dom-ītes revolted from under the [b]dominion of Jū'dah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Je-hō'ram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Ē'dom-ītes which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Ē'dom-ītes revolted from under the hand of Jū'dah unto this day. The same time also did Lĭb'nah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Jū'dah, and caused the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm to commit [5]fornication, and compelled Jū'dah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from E-lī'jah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Dā'vid thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Je-hŏsh'a-phăt thy father, nor in the ways of Ā'sa king of Jū'dah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Ĭs'ra-el, and hast made Jū'dah and the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm to go[6] a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ā'hăb,[7] and also hast [8]slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself;

14 Behold, with a great [c]plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy [9]bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 Moreover the LORD stirred up[10] against Je-hō'ram the spirit of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, and of the A-rā'bi-ans, that were near the Ē-thi-ō'pi-ans:

17 And they came up into Jū'dah, and brake into it, and carried [d]away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save [e]Je-hō'a-hăz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this the LORD smote[11] him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness; so he died of sore diseases: and his people made no burning for him, like the burning[12] of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Je-ru'sa-lĕm eight years, and departed without [f]being[13] desired: howbeit they buried him in the city of Dā'vid, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER 22. 389

AND the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm made Ā-ha-zī'ah[1] his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the A-rā'bi-ans to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ā-ha-zī'ah the son of Je-hō'ram king of Jū'dah reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ā-ha-zī'ah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Je-ru'sa-lĕm. His mother's name also was Ăth-a-lī'ah[2] the daughter of Ŏm'rī.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ā'hăb: for his mother[3] was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ā'hăb; for they were his counsellors[4] after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 He walked[5] also after their counsel, and went with Je-hō'ram the son of Ā'hăb king of Ĭs'ra-el to war against Hăz'a-el king of Sȳr'i-a at Rā'moth-gĭl'e-ad: and the Sȳr'i-ans smote Jō'ram.

6 And[6] he returned to be healed in Jĕz're-el because of the wounds which[a] were given him at Rā'mah, when he fought with Hăz'a-el king of Sȳr'i-a. And [b]Az-a-rī'ah the son of Je-hō'ram king of Jū'dah went down to see Je-hō'ram the son of Ā'hăb at Jĕz're-el, because he was sick.

7 And the [c]destruction of Ā-ha-zī'ah [7]was of God by coming to Jō'ram: for when he was come, he[8] went out with Je-hō'ram against Jē'hu the son of Nĭm'shī, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ā'hăb.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'hu was[9] executing judg-

CHAPTER 12

THEN [a] Jesus six days before [c] the passover came to Bethany, where [d] Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There [f] they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary [g] a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and [h] anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, [k] Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [p] had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my [q] burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [t] whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day [x] much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 Fear not, [a] daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 [b] These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when [e] Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 [i] For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [j] Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain [l] Greeks among them [m] that came up to worship [n] at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to [o] Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, [r] The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [s] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [u] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that [v] hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [w] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [y] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. [z] Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it

25 The brother of Mī'chah was Ĭs-shī'ah: of the sons of Ĭs-shī'ah; Zĕch-a-rī'ah.

26 The[4] sons of Mĕr'a-rī were Mäh'lī and Mū'shī: the sons of Jā-a-zī'ah; Bē'no.

27 The sons of Mĕr'a-rī by Jā-a-zī'ah; Bē'no, and Shō'hăm, and Zăc'-cur, and Ib'rī.

28 Of Mäh'lī came Ē-le-ā'zar, [5]who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kĭsh; the son of Kĭsh was Je-räh'me-el.

30 The sons also of Mū'shī; Mäh'lī, and Ē'der, and Jĕr'ī-mŏth. These were the sons of the Lē'vītes, after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots [6]over against their brethren the sons of Aâr'on in the presence of Dā'vid the king, and Zā'dok and A-hĭm'e-lĕch, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Lē'vītes, even the principal fathers, over against their younger brethren.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

7 So the number of them with their brethren, that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And[9] they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher[10] as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for Ā'saph to Jō'şeph: the second to Gĕd-a-lī'ah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

His answer concerning divorce. S. MARK, 10.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'sēs command you?
4 And they said, Mō'sēs suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.
5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept:
6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.
7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;
8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so

27 And Jē'sus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
28 Then Pē'ter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.
29 And Jē'sus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,
30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren,

ST. MATTHEW 17 Christ's transfiguration. Lunatick boy healed

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-lī'-ăs.

5 While he yet spake, behold, [b]a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [c]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and [e]be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 [f]And as they came down from the mountain, [g]Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that [n]E-lī'-ăs must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, E-lī'-ăs truly shall first come, and [q]restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That [s]E-lī'-ăs is come already, and they knew him not, but [t]have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ [v]And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is [v]lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and [a]perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus [d]apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: [f]for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a [g]grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto [h]this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by [k]prayer and [l]fasting.

22 ¶ [m]And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, [n]The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and [p]the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ [r]And when they were come to Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm, they that received [l]tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master [t]pay [l]tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus [u]prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take [w]custom or [z]tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me!

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.
27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.
28 Then Jē'sus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.
29 And Jē'sus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Gāl'i-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.
30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'sus' feet; and he healed them:
31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Is'rā-el.
32 Then Jē'sus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.
33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?
34 And Jē'sus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.
35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.
36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.
37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.
38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.
39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'da-la.

CHAPTER 16

THE Phăr'i-sees also with the Săd'du-çees came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky is red.
3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day; for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?
4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'năs. And he left them, and departed.
5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread,

S. MATTHEW 15

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?
4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.
5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me:
6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.
7 Ye hypocrites! well did E-sa'ias prophesy of you, saying,
8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.
15 Then answered Pē'ter, and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.
16 And Jē'sus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?
17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?
18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.
19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:
20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.
21 Then Jē'sus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and

The Epistle.

Col. iii. 1.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: in the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

The Gospel.

St. John xx. 1.

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as

JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there!
Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;
Be thou alone my constant flame.

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone!
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown!
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May every act, word, thought be love!

3 O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire or seek, but thee!

4 Still let thy love point out my way!
What wondrous things thy love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my word, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

HARK! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessèd strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come";
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.
Angels of Jesus, etc.

3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee.
Angels of Jesus, etc.

4 Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
Angels of Jesus, etc.

A General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men; [* particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

* This may be said when any desire to return thanks for mercies vouchsafed to them.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

SHOUT the glad tidings, exultingly sing,
Jerusalem triumphs, Messiah is King!

1 Sion, the marvelous story be telling,
The Son of the Highest, how lowly his birth!
The brightest archangel in glory excelling,
He stoops to redeem thee, he reigns upon earth.
Shout the glad tidings, etc.

2 Tell how he cometh; from nation to nation,
The heart-cheering news let the earth echo round:
How free to the faithful he offers salvation,
His people with joy everlasting are crowned.
Shout the glad tidings, etc.

3 Mortals, your homage be gratefully bringing,
And sweet let the gladsome hosanna arise:
Ye angels, the full alleluia be singing;
One chorus resound through the earth and the skies.
Shout the glad tidings, etc.

Saint Philip and Saint James's Day.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; Grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that, following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Saint Philip and Saint James, we may stedfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. St. James i. 1.

JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: but the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

THE FOURTH DAY.

Morning Prayer.

PSALM 19. Cæli enarrant.

THE heavens declare the glory of God : and the firmament showeth his handy-work.

2 One day telleth another : and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speech nor language : but their voices are heard among them.

4 Their sound is gone out into all lands : and their words into the ends of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun : which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again : and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is an undefiled law, converting the soul : the testimony of the LORD is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, and rejoice the heart : the commandment of the LORD is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, and endureth for ever : the judgments of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold : sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught : and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth : O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins,

JESUS, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

2 No voice can sing, no heart can frame.
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!

4 But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is None but his loved ones know.

5 Jesus, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
In thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity.

KING JAMES VERSION

The Only Authorized Standard Bible of America

"Half the power as well as the beauty of the Bible is the glorious English of the King James Version. All the accuracy of the revised versions can never compensate for the loss of beauty in the English.—The Christian Work.

The best constructed Bibles in the world are the Bagster and Cambridge. They are sold on their merits—not on tradition.

In the binding of any ordinary Bible the back is the weakest point—in the Bagster and Cambridge Bibles it is the STRONGEST. The test of superiority is by comparison.

All that is best in Bibles has for generations been identified with the Cambridge University Press of England, and Samuel Bagster & Sons, London, but it remained for James Pott & Co. to add the final touch of perfection in the guaranteed

PATENT "UNBREAKABLE BACK" BINDING

Only Bagster and Cambridge Bibles have this valuable feature. They will always open flat, will not break or crease in the back when open, and there is no strain on the leaves. It gives a longer life to these Bibles, and yet they cost no more than other editions.

They are Easy to Read and Easy to Sell

CAMBRIDGE BIBLES

In 1629, nearly three hundred years ago, the first Cambridge edition of the Authorised Version was printed. Since that time, Bibles have been printed continuously at Cambridge.

No other Press has produced a Bible with such easily readable Print, Pronouncing, in so small a volume, and having in addition the characteristic beauty associated with Cambridge Printing for centuries past.

As Cambridge Printing, so, also, is the paper used in Cambridge Bibles of high excellence. Two grades of paper are used, that popularly known as Cambridge Bible Paper, and the more costly Fine India Paper. Both are remarkable for strength, thinness, opacity and soft whiteness of color; these features being brought to such perfection in the Fine India Paper, that no further development would appear to be possible.

Cambridge Binding, whether the cover material be cloth or the most costly leather, is of the finest craftsmanship throughout. The word Cambridge embossed in gold on the binding of a Bible is a guarantee of the workmanship embodied in that binding.

All Cambridge Bibles, Testaments, Prayer and Hymnals are supplied exclusively in the guaranteed Patent "Unbreakable Back" Binding.

TO DEALERS

THIS catalogue contains only a partial list of the Board's publications. There have been included such books as should make an appeal to the general reading public who are interested in religious matters, and especially to those of the Presbyterian faith.

The Board also issues a General Catalogue which includes all of its publications.

In the fall of the year two special catalogues are published, one containing a list and description of supplies and equipment for churches and Sunday-schools; the other is the annual Holiday Catalogue.

Special Bible Catalogues and a Catalogue of Library Books are also issued from time to time and may be had upon application.

The books listed in this catalogue are all priced "Net" and for the most part are subject to our regular net discount to Dealers. The exceptions to this rule are marked with an asterisk and these items are subject to a special dealers' discount which will be quoted upon request.

Hymnody

The Hymnal (Revision of 1911)

Prepared by the same committee that compiled THE HYMNAL, and, like that, edited by Louis F. Benson, D.D. The rapid changes of our time and the varying emphasis on one or another line of religious work prompted a revision of THE HYMNAL of 1895, and the Board was fortunate in being able to secure the services of those who made the former book. This marks, we think, the highest point of merit reached by any hymn book up to this time, and is now the standard church book of praise of our denomination, authorized by the General Assembly.
